April 12, 2012

The annual dinner meeting opened at 7:45PM. The March minutes were read and approved. The March 2012 Treasurer’s report was read and accepted. Balance brought forward was $7,254.74, deposits were $3,542.50 and disbursements for the month totaled $526.16. Ending balance was $10,271.08. Guests at our annual dinner meeting this year are Todd Griffin, fourth meeting, Harold Wilson, and Doug Black, third meeting and Susan Hughes, second meeting.

The CCC Team from Catawba Valley Methodist Church served us a fine dinner and all income from the meal will go to their team. Special thanks to Phillip, their team leader, who was also the chief cook.

Our Armed Forces member veterans were recognized, and thanked for their service to our country.

Shannon Lyndon reminded all members of the “Range Day” that Riverview Sports will be hosting at the range on May 5th, starting at 10AM. The Rifle ranges will all be closed for the duration of the event, because the entire 100 yard firing line will be occupied. All CVRPC members are invited to attend, but are asked not to bring guests. Shannon has numerous firearms manufacturer’s bringing sample weapons and free ammunition with which to shoot them, so we are trying to limit this to Shannon’s selected customers and CVRPC members only. This will be a good opportunity to try out some of the new products on the market.

The 20th annual all-around champion this year was Neil Sipe at 82.0%, 2nd was Keven Sipe @ 79%, and 3rd was Duran Layle @ 72.17. The Winter League champion this year was Tim Drum, averaging 95.3 points per match, which is master-level shooting. Congratulations to all!

The current slate of officers was re-elected for yet another term. Thanks to all those who are serving as officers.

This year’s raffle winner was Shannon Lyndon, who was awarded a one year free membership.

Thanks again to the Catawba United Methodist Church for hosting another fine dinner for the CVRPC annual meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
 Lonnie Hagadorn,
 Secretary
