The monthly meeting of CVRP began at 7:30 with President Randy Clark presiding. The minutes were read and approved with one amendment. The treasurers report was read and accepted. Balance brought forward was $53,676.97, deposits were $1,064.00 and disbursements for the month totaled $227.81. Ending balance was $54,513.16. The treasurer read a list of 8 names of unpaid members and asked those in attendance to help contact these members to find out their intentions. Guests this month were Richard Parris, third meeting, Keith Harper, Joe Darnell and Nate Baumgarner, second meetings, and Tom Kern, first meeting. Subsequently, Richard Parris was voted into membership. Welcome to the club, Richard!

Old Business : Alan Yancey has installed the camera system, but the camera facing the front gate needs to be replaced for one with a longer telephoto lens or better resolution in order to read tag numbers. Norm Gozler turned in the profit from this year's completed F-Class matches and spoke about the matches remaining this year. Harold Wilson reported that all the 300 yard targets were now operational with no additional maintenance money being spent. Randy said that he would discuss the telephone situation soon with Century link and report at a future meeting. It was reported that the new air compressor hoses were missing and the membership was asked to be on the lookout for them.

New Business :

Susan Hughs reported that the FFA Alumni Association at Bunker Hill School is selling raffle tickets at $5 each for a chance on winning one of three rifles. A book of six tickets is available for $25. Joe Lassiter reported that the 2-gun match rules have been amended - see the website for details. Also, .22 rifle competition has been added as a 3rd event, and we now have "Flippers" to launch clay birds vertically behind a fallen popper target in the shotgun match. Tim Drum reminded the members about the .22 speed steel match on the third Saturday this month, plus the upcoming "Team Zombie" match in October.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00PM

Respectfully submitted,
 Lonnie Hagadorn, Secretary
